

Anna Rosina Fischer

Songbird

For all readers of Mona Kasten, Colleen Hoover and Laura Kneidl

About the Book · Although she had long suspected it, felt it deep inside, it hit her suddenly and completely unexpectedly.

Ella and Sam have known each other forever when she finally admits that he means more to her than anyone else. Too bad that Sam is her big brother's best friend. And that he now of all times starts a job as a trainee teacher – at her school. And then there's this thing with Milo... Completely overwhelmed by her feelings, Ella puts her own health at risk and doesn't only hurt herself.

Songbird is as romantic, chaotic, funny and deeply sad as the first big love.

| Winner of the #newpipertalent competition by Piper and Sweek

| For readers aged 14 years and up

Specifications

- | ivi Paperback
- | March 2019
- | 432 pages
- | World rights available

© Dorothea Wegjenich

About the Author · Born in East Berlin in 1980, Anna Rosina Fischer spent most of her childhood and youth as a competitive figure skater. Today she works in an inclusion company together with people with and without disabilities, loves to go to punk concerts and lives with her husband, two children and a cat in Berlin.